EPIPHANY BIBLE STUDY

The season of Epiphany is a time in which we bask in the light of Christ, revealed to all the nations. During this season we lift up the intrinsic value diversity plays as seen in every culture and ethnic group. In light of the social tensions that have occurred in our country over the past year, and in preparation for the celebration of Black History month, in February, a three-week online Adult Bible study beginning January 27th -February 10th will be offered on Zoom. This brief survey will highlight the presence of ancient Africans/Blacks in both the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures, Early Church and Modern-day Church.

We invite you to learn, rediscover and celebrate the contributions of people of color within the pages of the Bible. Email office@sac-okc.org for more details and to sign up.

ASH WEDNESDAY/ REOPENING

We plan to open our doors and return to in-person worship on Ash Wednesday! Take advantage of one of our worship opportunities as we begin our Lenten journey on Wednesday, February 17th.

- Ash and Dash 7-9 a.m. & 1-3 p.m. (drive-through ashes in the parking lot)
- Simple Ash Wednesday Liturgy with Holy Eucharist at 12 Noon
- Ash Wednesday Liturgy with Holy Eucharist at 7 p.m.

More details on how to sign up to reserve a spot for one of the services will be given as Ash Wednesday gets closer.

DELEGATES FOR 2021 CONVENTION

Do you know someone who would do a great job representing St. Augustine at the Diocesan Convention in this fall? If so, please send your recommendation to office@sac-okc.org. 5 delegates will be elected at the annual meeting on Sunday, January 31st. The convention is scheduled to be held on October 22nd - 23rd in Broken Arrow, near Tulsa.

MLK JR. ACTS OF SERVICE OUTREACH

In respect to MLK Jr. Day, the only federal holiday designated as a national day of service to encourage all Americans to volunteer to improve their communities, we'd like to offer a few service options that nearly everyone can do this month.

1. Pet (dog) food and supply collection for Homeless Alliance of OKC - Many of the homeless and vulnerable in our community also have a beloved dog as a comfort and companion. Pets are often overlooked in donations for the homeless. We'll collect dog food and supply items here at SAC for Homeless Alliance to share with clients with pets through Sunday, January 31.
2. Canned/Non-Perishable Food Collection for The Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma: Look through your pantry or cupboards and collect a handful of items to donate to The RFBO! What a beautiful way to honor the life and legacy of Dr. King, by helping feed those in need. We'll collect canned goods through Sunday, January 31 at the church.

*You may also wish to make a monetary donation to the church, and we'll do the shopping for you. Simply indicate in the memo of your check, or note on tithe.ly that your gift is directed toward MLK outreach.

+ THE LESSONS +

First Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Lector A Reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians.

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

Lector Here ends the Reading.

Gospel Acclamation: "You Have Come Down to the Lakeshore"

Cesáreo Gabaráin

© 1979 OCP Publications; ONE LICENSE #729454-A

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. It consists of eight lines of music, each with a corresponding line of lyrics. The lyrics are: "You have come down to the lake-shore seeking; You know full well what I have, Lord: neither need my hands, my ex-haustion, working; You who have fished other waters; You, the neither the wise nor the wealthy, but only treasure nor weapons for conquest, just these my love for the rest of the weary a love that's long-ing of souls that are yearning: O loving ask-ing for me to fol-low, fish-nets and will for work-ing, will-ing to go on lov-ing, friend, You have come to call me. Sweet Lord, You have looked in-to my eyes; kind-ly smil-ing You've called out my name. On the sand I have a-ban-doned my small boat; now with you I will seek oth-er seas." The score ends with a double bar line.

You have come down to the lake-shore seeking;
You know full well what I have, Lord: neither
You need my hands, my ex-haustion, working;
You who have fished other waters; You, the neither the wise nor the wealthy, but only treasure nor weapons for conquest, just these my love for the rest of the weary a love that's long-ing of souls that are yearning: O loving ask-ing for me to fol-low,
fish-nets and will for work-ing,
will-ing to go on lov-ing,
friend, You have come to call me.
Sweet Lord, You have looked in-to my eyes; kind-ly smil-ing You've called out my name. On the sand I have a-ban-doned my small boat; now with you I will seek oth-er seas.

Second Reading: Mark 1:14-20

Preacher A Reading from the Gospel of Mark.

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.” And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Preacher Here ends the Reading.

Water is poured into the baptismal font as the following is said:

The Baptismal Covenant

Dear People of God: In Holy Baptism we follow the pattern of our Lord Jesus Christ. As he came up from the waters he was anointed by the Spirit of God and designated as God's Son. So we also are anointed by that same Spirit; we are reborn and adopted as sons and daughters with whom God is well pleased. Let us now renew our own baptismal covenant.

Officiant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Officiant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Officiant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Officiant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed on us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

The Holy water is sprinkled in the four cardinal directions as a sign of cleansing and renewal.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre nuestro que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu Nombre,
venga tu reino,
hágase tu voluntad,
en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos
a los que nos ofenden.
No nos dejes caer en tentación
y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino,
tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria,
ahora y por siempre. Amén.

Officiant/ Preacher: The Reverend Lance Schmitz

Lector & Intercessor: Judy Moon

Musicians: Scott Chard, Guy Nembhard & Karena Van Horn

Organist: John Potter

Camera: Chris O’Leary & Josh Eliot

+ OUR STORY +

Three sacred ministers participate in a “solemn” mass - a celebrant (either priest or bishop), a deacon (which in this sense implies a role and not a holy order and can be a bishop, priest, or deacon), and a subdeacon (who can be of holy orders or a layperson). The deacon is assigned to read the Gospel and prepares the altar for the Eucharist. The subdeacon is assigned to read the Epistle, hold the Gospel book during the Gospel reading, and assist the deacon in preparing the Eucharistic table. The three ministers are assigned vestments peculiar to their office. A cope (derived from a Roman overcoat or cappa [signifying “topmost”]) is a highly ornamented cloak worn by the celebrant during the processional and recessional. At the Eucharist, the celebrant dons a chasuble which is less decorated than a cope, but unlike the cope is of the liturgically correct color. The deacon wears a dalmatic (derived from a tunic worn in Dalmatia) of the liturgical color decorated with two horizontal and two vertical orphreys or colored bands. A subdeacon wears the slightly smaller tunic (Latin word for “tunic”) of the liturgical color but with only one horizontal orphrey.
