Like most of God's unfolding story, this concept from the Bible contains several mysteries - do you have what it takes to solve ciphers, cryptograms, and other puzzles to discover the LIGHT of God's love for us? All ages, groups welcome. Email memberengagement@sac-okc.org to reserve your spot today!

LENTEN ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Starting Wednesday, February 24th at 11:00am, we will begin a six week Lenten Study, offered on Zoom. This forum will be exploring the events of Holy Week through the lens of the Gospel texts, artwork and insights of world-renowned biblical scholars and professors of preaching at Emory University's Candler School of Theology. Through the power and beauty of art and sacred texts the Clergy of St. Augustine will be provided a catalyst to aid on your journey of faith. Contact office@sac-okc.org for more information or to sign up.

EVENING LENTEN PROGRAM

Join Fr. Tony Moon for Lectio Divina (Divine Reading) in the comfort of your home via Zoom! This traditional Benedictine practice focuses on reading a passage of Holy Scripture followed by brief periods of reflection and prayer. The intention is to promote an encounter with God. Divine Reading does not treat Scripture as texts to be studied (that is, Bible Study), but as the Living Word—a path to find out what God is saying to me personally, and a time to listen for my heart's response to God. Sessions will be held on 7:00 to 8:00 p.m., beginning February 24 (the Wednesday after Ash Wednesday) through March 31st (the Wednesday before Easter) Please e-mail Ryan in the Church Office (saintaugustineokc@gmail.com) to register and receive a Zoom link. Attending all sessions is preferable for your own growth in this process, but is not required to participate!

LENTEN OUTREACH: EASTER MEALS FOR THE HOMELESS

In our ongoing efforts to help feed the hungry, we have set a goal of providing 700 meals this Easter. Despite the pandemic, we are confident that during this season of Lent the people of St. Augustine will help reach this goal. It's a great way for us to honor our crucified and risen Lord by sharing his love with homeless families making sure they have food to eat on Easter Sunday! Here is the list of food items we will be gathering each week of Lent:

- Feb. 21 -- Bottled water (any brand or size).
- Feb. 28 -- Sliced bread (any brand or type for sandwiches).
- March 7 -- Sliced cheese (any brand or type for sandwiches).
- March 14 -- Luncheon meat/cold cuts (any brand or type for sandwiches).
- March 21 -- Chips (Snack/lunch box size, any brand or type).
- March 28 -- Apples (any type, amount).

Please drop off your items weekly at the church entrance placing them in the plastic containers labeled "Easter Basket Outreach." Thanks in advance for all your help!

DO YOU SENSE A CALLING TO BE A DEACON OR PRIEST?

The Commission on Ministry of the Diocese of Oklahoma will be hosting a "Vocation Information Gathering" event to be held by Zoom on February 18, 2021, at 6:30 p.m. The purpose of this event will be to share information about the discernment process for Holy Orders in the Diocese of Oklahoma. Spouses are invited and encouraged to attend.

+ THE LESSONS +

First Reading: Isaiah 40:21-31

Lector A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Have you not known? Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

It is he who sits above the circle of the earth,
and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
and spreads them like a tent to live in;
who brings princes to naught,
and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing.

Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown,
scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth,
when he blows upon them, and they wither,
and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

To whom then will you compare me,
or who is my equal? says the Holy One.

Lift up your eyes on high and see:
Who created these?

He who brings out their host and numbers them,
calling them all by name;
because he is great in strength,
mighty in power,
not one is missing.

Why do you say, O Jacob,
and speak, O Israel,

"My way is hidden from the LORD,
and my right is disregarded by my God"?

Have you not known? Have you not heard?

The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.

He does not faint or grow weary;
his understanding is unsearchable.

He gives power to the faint,
and strengthens the powerless.

Even youths will faint and be weary,
and the young will fall exhausted;

but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength,
they shall mount up with wings like eagles,

they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint.

Lector Here ends the Reading.

Second Reading: Mark 1:29-39

Preacher A Reading from the Gospel of Mark.

After Jesus and his disciples left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, “Everyone is searching for you.” He answered, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do.” And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Preacher Here ends the Reading.

Sermon

The Reverend Joseph C. Alsay

Silence for reflection.

Hymn: ""The Good Old Way"

Traditional/ Spiritual

Water is poured into the baptismal font as the following is said:

The Baptismal Covenant

Dear People of God: In Holy Baptism we follow the pattern of our Lord Jesus Christ. As he came up from the waters he was anointed by the Spirit of God and designated as God's Son. So we also are anointed by that same Spirit; we are reborn and adopted as sons and daughters with whom God is well pleased. Let us now renew our own baptismal covenant.

Officiant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Officiant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Officiant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Officiant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Officiant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed on us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

The Holy water is sprinkled in the four cardinal directions as a sign of cleansing and renewal.

Amen.

+ OUR STORY +

During Lent, we are reminded by Ash Wednesday’s gospel that we are in a time of prayer, fasting, and self-denial. Surprising to some, page 17 of our Book of Common Prayer designates Ash Wednesday and Good Friday as “Fasts”, while the weekdays of Lent and Holy Week, (except the Annunciation on March 25) are considered “Days of Special Devotion” requiring “special acts of discipline and self-denial”. No specific rules are provided. The original fast preceding Easter lasted two days. Later in the Western church, the thirty-six days of Lent were punctuated by Sunday feasting - continuing the resurrection celebration even during Lent. Forty days of Lenten fasting was begun in the 7th century when the four days from Ash Wednesday to the first Sunday in Lent were added. Initially, fasting was strict with only one meal a day towards evening. Meat, eggs, and fish were forbidden. Beginning in the 4th century, the hour for breaking the fast was moved to 3 PM and later back to noon. The exact manner of a person’s fast is an individual one. The important point is to set aside this Lenten time in a special and personal way.

If you have a liturgical question or an inquiry about anything that transpires during or around our worship service, please forward the question you would like researched to: gghaas@aol.com. Please note whether we can credit you as the source of the question.
